

Siddington The Court took a Baron of the right hand of John Earl of Devon Baron of Wiltshire the recorder the light & true title day of October full of our Lord God 1656 By the Steward there it was presented as followeth The Jurors Chomage of Liddington
William Minton Michael Cornwell Edmund Simey James Gull Thomas Smith and William Ward Robert Manton John Docto Thomas Manton Ellen Anthony Minton Robert Manton William Ward John Webster Simon Ward being sworn on the holy bible they Amos and present as followeth (That is to say)

First that Sir Rowland Digby Knight & Thomas Burton Barons of the Court hath not riden John Minton & John Docto nor one of them to the Court day have made default And that Henry Clarke William Conson John Simey Edward Manton for surrendring the Comon and the Comon Marrow hath not riden his office in susteyning of Mowdy And that John Waterford and William Ward have taken in strangers into the Comon contrary to the orders of the Court And that John Docto hath suffered John Waterford to erect & make an oul crofted Collage And that Robert Manton John Docto and have taken in strangers And that Stephen Getherel Michael Minton Robert Greenwood Clement Chapman John Simey Robert Manton have made outrage And that William Ward hath taken horses into the forest and the Comon And that Robert Manton John Docto and of the Comon in the woods And that Robert Manton John Docto and will upon the highway to the Comon annoyed And that Robert Manton John Docto and the Comon annoyed and that Robert Manton John Docto and

And all this Court it was found by the homage that Anthony King hath & surrendred into the hands of the lord by the hands of James Minton one of the denomenors of this manor one acre of land lying in the paroch of Liddington also in the tenure of Robert Manton one acre of land lying in the paroch of Liddington granted by the lord by his Steward hath thereof granted & given to whom the lord by his Steward hath thereof granted & given to whom the lord by his
of a land unto the said Anthony King and his heirs & assigns for ever to whom the lord by his Steward hath thereof granted & given to whom the lord by his Forsaking therefore to the lord yearly by the hands of the lord by the hands of James Minton one of the denomenors of this manor one acre of land admittance to hold the same hath made fealty and admittance

And that John Waterford hath surrendred into the hands of the lord by the hands of James Minton one of the denomenors of this manor one acre of land the agreement in Liddington aforesaid to the use of the benefice of the said John Waterford & Mary his wife a late parish of the said manor lawfully begotten And for want of such issue to the use of the benefice of the said John Waterford & Mary his wife the lord by his Steward hath thereof granted & given to whom the lord by his to hold the said benefice & vicarage to the said John Waterford & Mary his wife the heirs of the said John Waterford & Mary his wife to the right heirs of the said John Waterford at the will of the lord according to the custom of the manor aforesaid and as much as the lord by his Steward hath thereof granted & given to whom the lord by his other denomenors therefore due accustomed they gave the lord a fine for the same land and as much as the lord by his Steward hath thereof granted & given to whom the lord by his

And that Robert Manton hath surrendred into the hands of the lord by the hands of James Minton one of the denomenors of this manor one acre of land arable land or lost ground some being by a former agreement and some by a former agreement in Liddington aforesaid to the use of the benefice of the said Robert Manton and the heirs of Stephen Manton his heirs & assigns for ever to whom the lord by his Steward hath thereof granted & given to whom the lord by his said benefice & vicarage to the said Robert Manton & Elizabeth his wife the heirs of the said Robert Manton & Elizabeth his wife to the right heirs of the said Robert Manton at the will of the lord according to the custom of the manor aforesaid and as much as the lord by his Steward hath thereof granted & given to whom the lord by his
admittance to hold the same hath made fealty and admittance

And that Robert Manton hath surrendred into the hands of the lord by the hands of James Minton one of the denomenors of this manor one acre of land ward outwards & close & other appurtenances thereto belonging in Liddington aforesaid to the use of the benefice of the said Robert Manton hath thereof granted & given to whom the lord by his Steward hath thereof granted & given to whom the lord by his the use of the said benefice & vicarage to the said Robert Manton & Elizabeth his wife the heirs of the said Robert Manton & Elizabeth his wife to the right heirs of the said Robert Manton at the will of the lord according to the custom of the manor aforesaid and as much as the lord by his Steward hath thereof granted & given to whom the lord by his Elizabeth lawfully begotten and for want of such issue to the use of the benefice of the said Robert Manton & Elizabeth his wife the heirs of the said Robert Manton & Elizabeth his wife to the right heirs of the the other moieties of the said benefice & vicarage to the said Robert Manton & Elizabeth his wife the heirs of the said Robert Manton & Elizabeth his wife to the right heirs of the said Robert Manton at the will of the lord according to the custom of the manor aforesaid and as much as the lord by his Steward hath thereof granted & given to whom the lord by his thereof granted & given to whom the lord by his Steward hath thereof granted & given to whom the lord by his
admittance to hold the same hath made fealty and admittance

And all this Court Stephen Manton did surrendre into the hands of the lord by the hands of James Minton one of the denomenors of this manor one acre of land Elizabeth his wife and one other land abutting upon the same land in the paroch of Liddington aforesaid to the use of the benefice of the said Stephen Manton the moieties of the said benefice & vicarage to the said Stephen Manton & Elizabeth his wife the heirs of the said Stephen Manton & Elizabeth his wife to the right heirs of the said Stephen Manton at the will of the lord according to the custom of the manor aforesaid and as much as the lord by his Steward hath thereof granted & given to whom the lord by his said benefice & vicarage to the said Stephen Manton & Elizabeth his wife the heirs of the said Stephen Manton & Elizabeth his wife to the right heirs of the said Stephen Manton at the will of the lord according to the custom of the manor aforesaid and as much as the lord by his Steward hath thereof granted & given to whom the lord by his
admittance to hold the same hath made fealty and admittance

And that Michael Cornwell hath surrendred into the hands of the lord by the hands of James Minton one of the denomenors of this manor one acre of land one acre of land & other appurtenances thereto belonging in Liddington aforesaid to the use of the benefice of the said Michael Cornwell said benefice & vicarage to the said Michael Cornwell & Elizabeth his wife the heirs of the said Michael Cornwell & Elizabeth his wife to the right heirs of the said Michael Cornwell at the will of the lord according to the custom of the manor aforesaid and as much as the lord by his Steward hath thereof granted & given to whom the lord by his
said benefice & vicarage to the said Michael Cornwell & Elizabeth his wife the heirs of the said Michael Cornwell & Elizabeth his wife to the right heirs of the
said Michael Cornwell at the will of the lord according to the custom of the manor aforesaid and as much as the lord by his Steward hath thereof granted & given to whom the lord by his
admittance to hold the same hath made fealty and admittance

And that Michael Cornwell hath surrendred into the hands of the lord by the hands of James Minton one of the denomenors of this manor one acre of land one half acre of land & other appurtenances thereto belonging in Liddington aforesaid to the use of the benefice of the said Michael Cornwell And after his decease to the use of the benefice of the said Michael Cornwell & Elizabeth his wife the heirs of the said Michael Cornwell & Elizabeth his wife to the right heirs of the said Michael Cornwell at the will of the lord according to the custom of the manor aforesaid and as much as the lord by his Steward hath thereof granted & given to whom the lord by his
said benefice & vicarage to the said Michael Cornwell & Elizabeth his wife the heirs of the said Michael Cornwell & Elizabeth his wife to the right heirs of the
said Michael Cornwell at the will of the lord according to the custom of the manor aforesaid and as much as the lord by his Steward hath thereof granted & given to whom the lord by his
admittance to hold the same hath made fealty and admittance

And that John Lury hath surrendred into the hands of the lord by the hands of James Minton one of the denomenors of this manor one acre of land culture and into advowson of the benefice of the said John Lury & Elizabeth his wife the heirs of the said John Lury & Elizabeth his wife to the right heirs of the said John Lury at the will of the lord according to the custom of the manor aforesaid and as much as the lord by his Steward hath thereof granted & given to whom the lord by his said benefice & vicarage to the said John Lury & Elizabeth his wife the heirs of the said John Lury & Elizabeth his wife to the right heirs of the said John Lury at the will of the lord according to the custom of the manor aforesaid and as much as the lord by his Steward hath thereof granted & given to whom the lord by his
admittance to hold the same hath made fealty and admittance

The Jurors Chomage of Caldercott Richard Hill John Worswold John Woodroffe Jun being all sworn on the holy bible they Amos and present as followeth (That is to say) First that Thomas George hath broken the assize of the land of the said Richard Hill & Elizabeth his wife the heirs of the said Richard Hill & Elizabeth his wife to the right heirs of the attending to the order of this Court And that Richard Mowbray the older Anthony Woodroffe widower Elizabeth Woodroffe John Woodroffe Jun Thomas Comlyn & Henry Norbond and William Sly have not repayed these wastes therefore they are fined & amerced the several fines set upon their heads have ever charged the Comon with Shoope therefore they are fined & amerced the several fines set upon their heads

All this Court it was found by the homage that William Rubens the younger hath surrendred into the hands of the lord by the hands of James Minton one of the denomenors of this manor one acre of land of William Sly one of the denomenors of the said manor one doft and one half yard land of the appurtenances thereto belonging in the paroch of Caldercott in Snolson to the use of the benefice of the said William Rubens the younger & Elizabeth his wife the heirs of the said William Rubens the younger & Elizabeth his wife to the right heirs of the granted & given to whom the lord by his Steward hath thereof granted & given to whom the lord by his Lord according to the custom of the manor aforesaid and as much as the lord by his Steward hath thereof granted & given to whom the lord by his
admittance to hold the same hath made fealty and admittance

And that Thomas Woodroffe gent hath surrendred into the hands of the lord by the hands of James Minton one of the denomenors of this manor one acre of land next manor of Caldercott aforesaid to the use of the benefice of the said Thomas Woodroffe & Elizabeth his wife the heirs of the said Thomas Woodroffe & Elizabeth his wife to the right heirs of the hath thereof granted & given to whom the lord by his Steward hath thereof granted & given to whom the lord by his
to the custom of the manor aforesaid and as much as the lord by his Steward hath thereof granted & given to whom the lord by his
admittance to hold the same hath made fealty and admittance

And that Christopher Woodroffe hath surrendred into the hands of the lord by the hands of James Minton one of the denomenors of this manor one acre of land one acre of pasture containing by estimation half an acre or more or less in the paroch of Caldercott to the use of the benefice of the said Christopher Woodroffe & Elizabeth his wife the heirs of the said Christopher Woodroffe & Elizabeth his wife to the right heirs of the
as to and with the said land & other appurtenances thereto belonging in the paroch of Caldercott to the use of the benefice of the said Christopher Woodroffe & Elizabeth his wife the heirs of the said Christopher Woodroffe & Elizabeth his wife to the right heirs of the and the heirs of the said Christopher Woodroffe & Elizabeth his wife the heirs of the said Christopher Woodroffe & Elizabeth his wife to the right heirs of the said Christopher Woodroffe at the will of the lord according to the custom of the manor aforesaid and as much as the lord by his Steward hath thereof granted & given to whom the lord by his said benefice & vicarage to the said Christopher Woodroffe & Elizabeth his wife the heirs of the said Christopher Woodroffe & Elizabeth his wife to the right heirs of the said Christopher Woodroffe at the will of the lord according to the custom of the manor aforesaid and as much as the lord by his Steward hath thereof granted & given to whom the lord by his
admittance to hold the same hath made fealty and admittance

Robert Manton

And that Simon Cayle hath surrendered into the hands of the lord by the hands of Walter de Bonis one of the barons of the said maner one acre and an half of meadow lying being in the south side of the house of Walland of the to the use and benefit of Thomas Dowsett of his heirs and assigns for ever to whom the lord by his steward hath thereof granted licence to hold the said acre and a half of meadow into the said Thomas Dowsett his heirs and assigns for ever at the will of the lord according to the custome of the said maner according to the lord's will by some suit of court or other way or to hold the said acre and a half of meadow in admuted tenent