Manor of Dallington, F. Dalling, Memorandum, the 1st ninth day of October 1720.

In the County of Rutland, the thousand two hundred and forty-third year of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Customary tenants of the Manor of Dallington, granted into the hands of the Lord of the said Manor by the hands of the said Walker Caras, one of the Overseers thereof, for the sum of £4. All that quartermere or fourth part of one yard land containing a dimension eight feet and an half of the same more or less, with the appurtenances belonging in the street and the way of Dallington, opened and unobstructed, a space of land to the south part of one yard land containing a dimension eight feet and an half of the same more or less, with the appurtenances belonging in the street and the way of Dallington, opened and unobstructed.

To the use and behoof of the said Thomas Curtis, during the said marriage between him and Sarah, spinster, of Holton in the said county of Rutland, spinster, shall be his and her jointure, and from and after the decease thereof, then to the use and behoof of the said Thomas Curtis and the said Sarah spinster, his lawful wife, and the decease of the survivor of them, then to the use and behoof of the heir of the body of the said Thomas Curtis on the body of the said Sarah spinster, his lawful wife, and after her decease, to the use and behoof of the heir of the body of the said Thomas Curtis for ever, according to the custom of the said Manor.

This surrender was taken the day and year above written.

Walker Harvey, W.H.

24th April 1720

Wm. Mawby, W.M.

Thos. Curstie & Sarah, spinster.

13s. 2d.