And the future ... and also the heirs of the said John and Elizabeth, in right of the said deed, have a good and valuable estate in the lands, tenements, and hereditaments therein, and are entitled to all the benefits and profits thereof, in the same manner as if the said deed had been executed at the time of the said conveyance, as if the said deed had been executed at the time of the said conveyance, for the use of the said John and Elizabeth, and their heirs and assigns forever.

And the future ... the lands, tenements, and hereditaments therein, and are entitled to all the benefits and profits thereof, in the same manner as if the said deed had been executed at the time of the said conveyance, for the use of the said John and Elizabeth, and their heirs and assigns forever.

And the future ... the lands, tenements, and hereditaments therein, and are entitled to all the benefits and profits thereof, in the same manner as if the said deed had been executed at the time of the said conveyance, for the use of the said John and Elizabeth, and their heirs and assigns forever.
