

S.^r I humbly present to you (as desired) the customs as followeth
 For our fines, they are one yeared rent of all Coppithold land and Cottages: yf parcels be given, or sold, and y not agreed of the proportion of rent. you may proportion it soe that the antient rent be not augmented or abated;

Item. Due to the Steward for every Coppie. 3.^s 4.^d for every admittance 2 ————— 1 — 0 for every womans examination 2 ————— 1 — 0 in Court, but out of Court sometimes more

Due to the Baliff or trier for every Coppie admitted — 0 — 4
 Due to the freebarrowes alsoe 2 ————— 0 — 4

Item A free-barrow may keepe a steward in his hand but a yeare and a day except rentred, at his will

Item The steward is to take a steward presented to him by a free-barrow at any time or place setting downe the day and yeare its presented. setting his hand thereto, and may keepe it himselfe, or giving the free-barrow it to keepe till y next Officers. (Court)

Robt Smith the younger } Constables in being Thomas manton y. yong }
 James Hill

James Tiptast } Freebarrowes
 Robert Ireland }
 Tho: manton y. old. }

Thomas warren } Ale tasters
 Thomas Polo }

Edmond Simey } foilde = foarthers
 Moses Allen }
 James Hill }
 John Carratt }

William Peake Pinder

A Note of the fees

This from y^r servant
 James Tiptast