

A copy of Henry Clarks funeral

done by my self nor take notice of it

Cuddington to M^r that this fiftenth day of September Anno Dⁿⁱ 1683 Salcott } Henry Clarke one of the tithingmen to me of the Mannor of did sell of old sword into the hands of the Lord of the same Mannor by the hands of Lawrence Reynolds one of the doctours there all that one half yard land wth the appurtenances in Cuddington aforesaid now in the hands & occupation of the Henry Clarke to the use & behoofe of the said Henry Clarke and his heirs & their accustomed marriage intended between Nicholas Allanton of Shoppe in the County of Rutland yeoman & Anne Clarke of Cuddington aforesaid Spinster w^{ch} is to the said Henry Clarke shall take effect immediately from the date the solemnization of the said marriage intended & then to the use & behoofe of the said Henry Clarke & Anne his wife for & during the term of their lives & the life of the longer lived of them & from & after their decease & deceases then to the use & behoofe of the said Nicholas Allanton his heirs & assigns for ever provided always that the said Henry Clarke & Anne his wife if William Featherston of Doleynston in the County of Northampton his bond & nephew to the said Henry Clarke his heirs & assigns shall pay or cause to be paid to the said Nicholas Allanton the full sum of one hundred pounds of good & lawfull money of England w^{ch} in one year next after the date & date of the said Henry Clarke & Anne his said wife then this sword to be sold & of new offered to the said Nicholas Allanton & his heirs & afterwards to whomsoever to the only use & behoofe of the said William Featherston his heirs & assigns for ever according to the custom of the said Mannor.

Upon the payment of the above said sum of one hundred pounds of the said Henry Clarke in his life by me unto the said Nicholas Allanton then this sword to be received at his will

by Lawrence Reynolds
 Rth Salcott

Hand of Henry Clarke

These summe I was delivered into my hands but I think fit to keep it so it may be amongst the papers of the court.

Siddington cum Waldcroft

September 18th 1684

The day and yeare above written Henry Clarke did surrender into the hands of the lord by the hands of Lawrence Teanoldes one of the deacons thereof after the decease of him the said Henry and Ann his wyfe. One halfe yard land with all the appurtenances thereto belonging now in the tenure & occupation of him the said Henry lying & being in the fields and territories of Siddington aforesaid, And this Surrender he made to the use & behoofe of Nicholas Manton of Charge in the Countie of Rutland and of his heires or assignes forever according to the Custom of the said manor, Provided alwayes neuertheless & upon this Condition that yf William Featherston of Collingston in the Countie of Northampton Husband man (Nephew to the said Henry Clarke) his heires executor or administrator shal & doe not and truly pay or cause to be payd unto the said Nicholas Manton his executor administrator or assignes the full Sum of one hundred poundes of good & lawful money of England within one yeare next after the decease and deceases of the said Henry Clarke & Ann his wyfe, then this surrender to be void & of non effect to the said Nicholas Manton & his heires or assignes. And afterwards the said Henry Clarke doth surrender all the premises abovesaid to the sole use and behoofe of the said William Featherston and his heires or assignes for ever according to the Custom of the said manor.

If the said Henry Clarke pay the abovesaid Sum of One hundred poundes by his life unto the said Nicholas Manton that then those abovesaid Surrenders shal be revokeable at the will and pleasure of the said Henry.

M. This is a true copie wth Henry Clarke set his marks unto