Exit Isaac Flander, son of Nathaniel Flander, of London, to John Deacon, merchant, of the parish of St. Sepulchre, in the city of London, having a mortgage on a house in the parish of St. Sepulchre, described as being 20 feet, with a garden of 50 feet frontage and a depth of 80 feet, valued at £100. The mortgage was given to secure the repayment of a loan of £50, with interest at 6% per annum. The mortgage was to be paid within 10 years from the date of the agreement.

Furthermore, the mortgage included a provision for the sale of the property in the event of default, with the proceeds to be used to repay the loan and any accrued interest. The mortgage also contained a clause allowing the lender to enter the property and take possession if the borrower failed to make the required payments. The mortgage was witnessed by several individuals, including John Deacon, Isaac Flander, and several others who served as sureties for the agreement.

Dear Sir,

I am writing to express my deepest gratitude for your kind gesture of sending me the rare book "A New Perspective on Time". The book is indeed a treasure trove of insights and has enriched my understanding of the subject. Your generosity is truly commendable, and I am honored to have received such a valuable resource.

I assure you that this book will be a valuable addition to my collection and will serve as a guide and inspiration for my future research. I look forward to sharing my findings with you once I have completed my work on this topic.

Thank you once again for your kindness and support. I hope our paths will cross again in the near future.

Yours sincerely,

[Your Name]
